

Brandi Rae Hicks

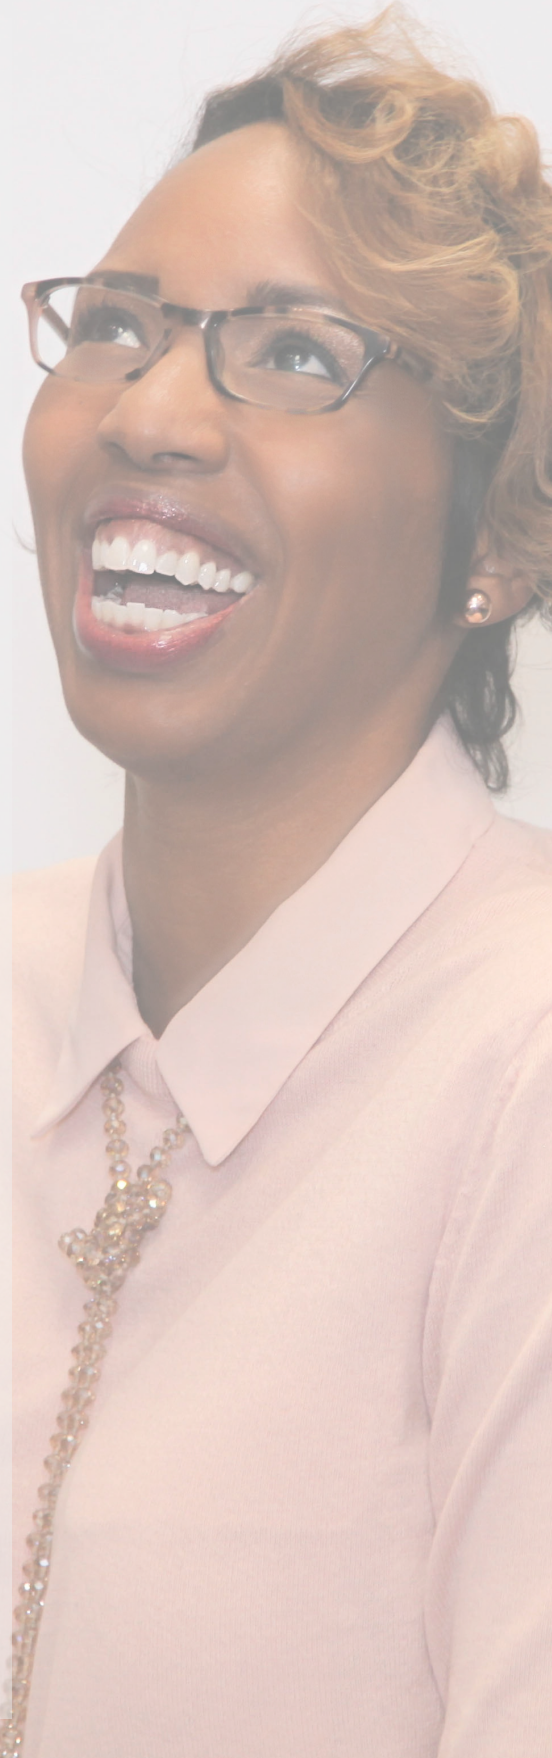

GRANT WRITER & NONPROFIT CONSULTANT

Brandi Rae Hicks is a nonprofit navigator with more than 20 years of professional nonprofit experience. She is the Founder and Professor at Serve University (known as, SERVE-U) a virtual campus providing education and training to nonprofit leaders, communitarians, and people who want to learn how to serve their communities more abundantly. Her institute of learning promotes academic advancement for nonprofit organizations, it's leaders, and volunteers.

Brandi Rae is also a Grant Writer and Nonprofit Consultant for public charities, government entities, private foundations, school districts, and philanthropists. Her nonprofit consulting firm has secured and managed over $1 Billion in major gifts, grants, and community assets. She has spearheaded projects for United Way of Greater Atlanta, City of Atlanta Parks and Recreation, Atlanta Mission, National Center for Civil and Human Rights, and The Center for Working Families. Brandi Rae was the Federal Grant Writer & Manager for Georgia Department of Juvenile Justice and Atlanta Technical College, and managed private family foundations initiatives for professional athletes, celebrities and entertainers. Her grant writing firm's most recent professional accomplishment was securing the $11.5M Department of Education grant for Morehouse College.

Brandi Rae has a Bachelor of Liberal Arts from University of Cincinnati and received both her Master Business Administration in Marketing and Master Public Administration in Nonprofit Management from Keller Graduate School of Management. Currently, she is a doctoral candidate at Northeastern University (Organizational Leadership). Brandi Rae is a published author of "10 Things You Need to Complete Your College Application" and is the Executive Director of College Clinic helping students and their families transitions into college and beyond.

Who do you know in the community that Brandi Rae can help their nonprofits serve more abundantly?

In the Community

MOREHOUSE
COLLEGE

CHRISTIAN CHURCH
TRANSFORMING YOUR WORLD

YOUTH-EMPOWERMENT
SUCCESS SERVICES

Book Brandi Rae Hicks

Grant Writer & Nonprofit Consultant

www.BrandiRaeHicks.com

Facebook | Instagram | Twitter @BrandiRaeHicks

(404)500-8822

info@BrandiRaeHicks.com